Board Reviews Special Education Program

that, in new legislative action in the past General Assembly, a specific act was made on the Special Education Program. The state law now requires the School Board to appoint two new committees. The first being an advisory committee which will assist and develop plans for identifying children in need of the Special Education services. This committee will also implement services, procedures with both school and community authorities and assist in a long range formulation plan for identifying needs, after which the committee must submit reports on their findings and make recommendation for action. They will then interpret to the community their proposals and plan for implementation. The second committee will be the Placement Committee. Their function will be to review the applications of those requesting special education, and recommend placement of the special student if acceptable to the committee. Persons to serve on these committees have not been named as yet.

Both Chairman Fratrick and R. H. Gray questioned the authority of the board in the appointments of children for special education and after much discussion, Vice-Chairman Ruth Webb made a motion that any applicant recommended be referred to the school board for final approval. The board voted in concurrence with Mrs. Webb.

H. Wayne Tucker, newly appointed principal for the Appomattox County High School, appeared before the board to discuss various policies pertaining to the High School.

The date for meetings of the Appomattox County School Board was again set for the second Friday of each month.

Letter To The Editor

July 11, 1972

Dear Editor:

For many years the citizens of the town of Appomattox have had many different water problems; but in the past we would be told of this, and the people acted accordingly.

The Town Council under contract painted one of our Water Tanks both inside and outside without telling the citizens of the town of Appomattox. Thus in our section of this town quite a few of the people had muddy - very muddy water for sometime.

One of the many jobs of our Town Council is to tell the people what to expect to do concerning water and from what I hear from my neighbors and from what I can see, the Town Citizens are not being told what is going on by the Town Council.

Respectfully yours,
Dick Wingfield

The Pastor Speaks

"Prodigal Mother"

Titus: 2:2-5 "The aged women -- that they may teach the young women to be -- keepers at home."

I quote today an old and familiar message on the Mothers.

A certain man had a wife and three children. The wife becoming dissatisfied with housekeeping and coveting the money being earned by her neighbors said to her husband, "Husband, secure for me the Social Security number that falleth to me and divide unto me a portion of thy trousers."

With a reluctant heart the husband granted her desire and divided his wardrobe. Not many days later the wife donned slacks and with tool box under her arm waved good-bye to the children and took a journey into a far country and there secured a mans job in a factory. She made big wages but she associated with the wicked and listened to the vulgar stories that they told. There was a mighty spiritual famine in the land and she grew lean in her soul. The children turned loose at the mercy of the neighbors soon forgot that they had a Mother. But the husband remembered the duties of a wife and wished that his wife would return to her home.

The husband dined on cold lunch meat while the wife tried in vain to fill her stomach on the husks of the cheese crackers that fell from the canteen vender's machines and no man gave unto her the respect due unto a lady. One day at rest period as she sat engulfed in cigarette smoke and smudgy stories she came to herself. She said to herself with remorse, "Here I sat surrounded by vulgarity and sacrificing the respects due a lady. At home is a deserted husband while the children roam the streets unrestrained. The money I make seems small compared to peace of mind and soul."

In vain she tried to smother her conscience, the thought that she was contributing to her families economical welfare so she

WHEN IN DOUBT . .

Lesson for July 16, 1972

Background Scripture: Psalms 103: 1-5, 104; 150
Devotional Reading: 103: 6-18.

Have you ever noticed how many prayers begin and end with expression of praise?

Take the Lord's Prayer, for example. We begin: "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name." Only after we have begun in praise do we get on to making our requests: "Give us . . . forgive us . . . lead us not . . ." then, having made known our requests, we return once again to praise: "For thine is the kingdom ..."

The Missing Ingredient

A friend baked a cake and forgot to put in the baking powder. The cake was a failure; said to herself, "I will arise and go unto my husband and say unto him, 'Husband, I have sinned against heaven, and neglected my family in a terrible way. I am no more worthy to be called thy wife nor Mother of thy children. Make me as thy hired housekeeper'".

So she gathered her tools together and started home. When she was yet a long way off the husband saw her, ran and clasped her in his arms and the wife said unto him, "Husband I am no longer worthy to be called thy wife nor the Mother of thy children". The Father said unto the children, "Run and bring hither a dress and the best apron, put shoes on her feet and run to the meat market and get a steak of a fatted calf. Let us have a warm meal once more. For this your Mother was lost and is found."

So they rejoiced and made merry.
